

In addition to the abundant natural materials and finishes, Terry incorporated several calming blue and green tones throughout the interior to echo the riverfront setting. These colorful bird portraits, which were hand-painted by Jennifer's sister-in-law, Sarah Lutz, also pay homage to some of the island's bird species.