The former kitchen with its basic countertops and appliances was ready for a refresh. Now, this easy living kitchen features natural wood floors, leathered Fantasy Brown granite counter tops, and cabinets draped in a soft moss hue that blends seamlessly with a new dining area. “We extended the footprint of the kitchen all the way to the left of the windows, augmenting storage and giving the feeling of a more open, cohesive space,” Morgan says.

The former kitchen was furnished with ordinary-looking cabinets and finishes that lacked personality.
