

An ugly duckling no more. The new bathroom is ready for her close-up, Mr. DeMille.

PRETTY IN PINK | Heather Duggan Interiors

Once a dull utilitarian bathroom, this space received a makeover from head-to-toe where the only thing remaining from the original room was the location of the plumbing. “I wanted an unexpected, glamorous powder room,” explains Heather Duggan, principal designer from Heather Duggan Interiors located in Troy. “I fell in love with this Fabricut wallpaper and knew it was a perfect fit for this space.” According to the designer, it’s now referred to as the “Pink Barbie Bathroom.” “The size of the area stayed the same, but we raised the ceiling and hand-painted it with gold leaf,” Duggan noted. After a dramatic makeover, the new bathroom is gilded and feminine.
