

A blue racing stripe makes an impressive impact as it perfectly lines up with the custom upholstered bed.

All of the boys' bedrooms were fitted with an LED lighting system which can be controlled through an app on their phones. "We sourced the crown molding lighting and illuminated acrylic shelves from a company that specializes in professional stage displays for touring bands," explained Martin. "Not only can the boys alter the color, they can adjust the beat and rhythm of the illumination to sync with audio."