

The designer used elements such as centrally placed ceiling light fixtures and a classic pedestal table in the foyer to draw a clear sightline through the house and beyond to Lake St. Clair.