

Yellen incorporated youthful elements like beloved stuffed animals and pieces that are nods to family history.

ONE TO GROW ON

The eldest child's room has a mix of lighthearted and mature décor that offers years of longevity. For example, “the painting of the horse is more serious and the knobs on the dresser are playful, and we incorporated some of his stuffed animals to make the space more youthful,” Yellen says.

AVAILABLE AT MDC: City Lights Detroit lamp and light fixture; Decoroom window covering construction; Schumacher window covering fabric; Kravet/Lee Jofa/Brunschwig & Fils custom lamp shade, bedding, and chair fabrics.