

“He wanted clean, intentional design — everything in its place. That discipline let us create a space that feels inviting even with a crowd.”

— Ruth Casper

Basement BEFORE

The lower level's centerpiece is a full-service entertainment bar.

THE BAR THAT SETS THE TONE

As guests descend the stairs, they are immediately greeted by a sleek corner bar anchored by fluted wood millwork at the island, and a vertical-groove tile backsplash—details that pull the eye upward and visually heighten the space. Custom oak floating shelves, routed with concealed LEDs, showcase the homeowner's extensive tequila collection. A French-door refrigerator, dedicated beverage fridge, and ice maker keep crowds served, while a high-pressure glass rinser offers a quick, professional way to prep glasses.